

2011 New Haven Leadership Grants

Organization Name	Description	Amount
New Haven Youth Tennis	To support the Tennis in the Neighborhood program which includes a component on health related issues like food choices and healthcare.	$ 1,000
EIR Urban Youth Boxing	To support a boxing club for up to 120 children (per semester) in grades 2-12.	$ 1,500
New Haven Pop Warner	To support a youth football program for children ages 5-15 years old (8 teams).	$ 3,000
Community Alliance for Youth Sports	To support the cost of registering 40 children in an organized sport.	$ 1,000
Frontline Souljaz	To support the Hoopin' not Shootin' basketball tournament. Grant funds will be used to pay for refreshments and music.	$ 3,000
Act New Haven	To support Kids and Communities Working for the Environment - a two part project that engages both children and parents.	$ 1,700
Fortunato Sicilian Puppets	To support the construction of a portable stage and 13 puppets for a new performance of St George and the Dragon.	$ 3,000
Women of Power Network	To support the Developing Leaders Mentoring Platform.	$ 1,500
Higher Heights Youth Empowerment	To support the HIGHER Men Mentoring Program - 20 males attending Metropolitan High School will participate.	$ 3,000
New Haven Inner City	To support 4 programs: Junior Leader Training, New Haven Community Gardening, Overnight Camping and Food Pantry Shopping.	$ 3,000
Friends of East Rock	To support the expansion of the Youth@ Work program.	$ 1,500
Chatham Square Neighborhood Youth Empowerment Group	To support the extension of the Quinnipiac Terrace (QT) after school program into the summer for children who reside at the QT.	$ 2,970
Kids, Food and Farm	To support a pilot program at Clinton Avenue School where 5th grade students would be growing produce, creating a business plan and running a one-day farm stand.	$ 2,355
Medical Campus Traffic Safety	To increase awareness about pedestrian and traffic safety. Yale alumni and Solar Youth will be partnering to paint "Street Smart" logos around YNHH and Westville Manor.	$ 475
Barnard Environmental Studies Magnet School PTO	To support various activities that will be presented at the Barnard Energy Fair. Activities include researching ways to cut down on energy use and creating informative posters.	$ 1,800
West River Neighborhood Service Corporation	To support an International Day of Prayer for Peace celebration at the United Nations/New Haven International Peace Garden at West River.	$ 1,000