

The Community Foundation
for Greater New Haven

Angela G Powers

*Sr Vice President for Development, Stewardship
& Donor Services*

Angela has more than 30 years in development, communications, marketing, and senior executive management and leadership. In her role, she oversees the development, marketing and communications activities, including stewardship.

Prior to joining The Community Foundation she was the first President of the Valley Community Foundation. Angela was also a partner with Ekstrom & Associates, a consulting firm of practitioners whose clients include community foundations, charitable organizations, families, individuals, and their advisors.

Before joining Ekstrom & Associates, Angela directed the endowment campaign for the Quinnipiac University School of Law and served as its chief development officer. Prior to that, she served eight years as Director of Development and Communications of the then-called New Haven Foundation, now The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven.

Earlier in her career, Angela was Director of the Annual Development Program at Quinnipiac University, directed membership and development at the DeCordova and Dana Museum in Lincoln, Massachusetts, and was a coordinator for the March of Dimes of Monmouth County, New Jersey. Angela also spent two years living and working in Greece.

Angela earned her B.A. from Fairfield University in Connecticut and is a Certified Fund-Raising Executive and trained facilitator. She resides in Hamden with her husband, Bill, and their two sons.
