WHAT INSPIRES YOU?

Mark

Gateway Community College, which is making college available to kids with little money and older people who never had the opportunity.

Jeffrey

There's always something going on. There's all kinds of stuff — nightlife, sports, or volunteering activities. We have some great parks, lots of really exciting stuff you can do to be involved.

Mary

I love Ansonia because I love walking this trail. I am walking it for my health and my strength. I'm a 13-year cancer survivor and I have a heart condition. It's a quiet and peaceful place, and it's a nice neighborhood to be in.

Gamaliel

What inspires me about New Haven is our young people. I'm a youth worker myself. The young people really inspire me because I strongly believe that youth is the force for change. They bring others into activities for the environment, for art, and cause a whole community to change.

What inspires me as a community physician is to see that every member of the community is free of diabetes, high blood pressure, and obesity, and also to see that every child in the community has the potential, and should fulfill this potential. That's what inspires me. How can we help them? We as a community have to be involved in every child's life and develop that child's potential.

Milford is a really great community because everybody is like a family. After Hurricane Sandy, or any natural disaster like that, everybody pulls together. There's no division. There's so much to do, like walking, bike riding, kayaking, canoeing. There's something for everybody. It's just a perfect place to live and we're so central. If it's not in Milford for you, then it's a quick hop on I-95 or on any of the main roads and you're wherever you want to be.

Paul

It has the best of a great city and a small town. I like New Haven because it has allowed me to do almost anything I want to do in my life.

Traci

There's so much to enjoy when you're here. If you say "good morning" to people, they'll say "good morning" back — they're friendly.

Sarah

Improving my education so I become a better nurse. I've met a lot of local people who are really excited about the fact that I'm adding to my community, and they make me feel really a part of things. There's so much art and life here. I was able to participate in a grassroots project here where unique photographs were taken of different locals and then blown up and put under the underpasses to make them a little more friendly.
